

David Kani, Author & Lawyer Tapped for National MENSA Keynote Lecture

Business Attorney David Kani to Present: Cannabusiness - What's Now, New & Next? at MENSA AG, Annual Gathering

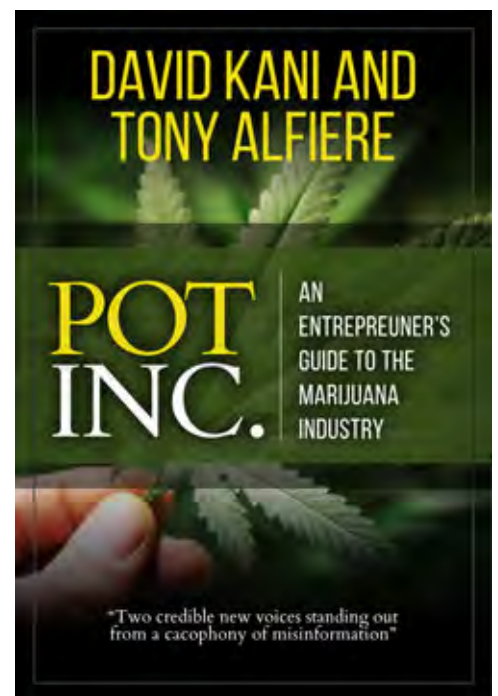

David Kani, a high visibility California business lawyer and noted author, is slated for a keynote lecture at MENSA's Annual Gathering on July 8th at the Sheraton Conference Center in Phoenix, Arizona.

Annual conference participants, all members of the ultra-high IQ MENSA organization, will attend Kani's lecture: Cannabusiness – What's Now, New & Next, based on his forthcoming similarly titled book wherein he looks at:

- The Cannabis Green Rush which is attracting hordes of investors looking to participate in an industry forecasted to be in the $25 billion dollar annual range;
- The social, financial, and legal mosaic of the fragmented hyper-

MENSA members are a terrific audience for this message as they can see beyond historical marijuana prejudices and get rich schemes to see a massive industry in its infancy with profits and medical benefits for large groups of Americans.

– David Kani
Lawyer & Co-founder,
Hochfelsen and Kani Law Firm,
Author, Speaker

growth cannabis industry across the United States;

- Opportunities and pitfalls and sage counsel for investors from angels to early stage and beyond.

David Kani is a well-known Newport Beach, California based business lawyer who helps companies, investors, and professionals navigate disputes in a variety of commercial sectors including the cannabis industry from retailers and distributors, to growers and companies indirectly connected with cannabusiness.

“MENSA members are a terrific audience for this message as they can see beyond historical marijuana prejudices and get rich schemes to see a massive industry in its infancy with profits and medical benefits for large groups of Americans.” - David Kani

The MENSA national conference marks the start of Kani's 2019 speaking tour.

MENSA is an international society with the membership qualification standardized testing results in the population's top 2%. The nonprofit's purpose is to conduct research in psychology and social science, identify and foster human intelligence for the benefit of humanity and serve as a means for stimulating intellectual and social contacts among its membership.

David co-founded and leads Hochfelsen & Kani, a highly rated California-based law firm with a national footprint addressing business disputes of every sort as well as qui tam whistleblower representation. Attorney Kani provides expert legal commentary for national and local media outlets and is the author of Pot Inc. – An Entrepreneur's Guide to the Cannabis Industry set for late 2019 release at Sutton Hart Press. ■